The Product Calendar shall be made available to all Account Holders in an appropriate format (to be decided by the Clearinghouse) with such means of publication as the Clearinghouse decides.

2 PRODUCTS AND CONTRACTS

2.1.1 The Contract Specifications of each Product form the basis for all Contracts in Clearing Listed Products. The parties to a Contract acquire rights and obligations in accordance with the Contract Specifications for the applicable Product and/or Series, as may also be supplemented by other parts of the Clearing Rules.

2.1.2 The Counterparties may not invoke other rights and obligations against each other than those following from the applicable Contract Specifications and the Clearing Rules as applicable.

2.2 Parties to Contracts

2.2.1 The parties to Contracts may be referred to as purchaser and seller, or by other terms in certain contracts. For example, the purchaser under an Options Contract may be referred to as the Option Holder and the seller as the Option Issuer or Option Writer.

The Clearinghouse will act as central counterparty to the original purchaser and seller in all Clearing Transactions, and the original purchaser and seller will maintain their role as purchaser or seller (as applicable) towards the Clearinghouse as central Counterparty in the corresponding Clearing Transactions. Further rules relating to the creation of Clearing Transactions are set out in the General Terms of the Clearing Rules.
2.3 Availability

2.3.1 The availability of any Product or Series is subject to their individual Term, Opening Hours, and technical availability of the applicable Contract in the Clearing System.

2.3.2 The Term for each Series is identified in the Quotation List by reference to its First Bank Day and Expiration Day.

4.1.3 In case the Contract Base for a Product ceases to exist the Clearinghouse may by providing fourteen (14) days prior written notice replace the original Contract Base with any successor reference, provided that such new reference in the reasonable view of the Clearinghouse is directly equivalent and/or successor to the original Contract Base for all relevant purposes of the related Product(s). In case of mere changes to the name of the Contract Base or its issuer the "new Contract Base shall always be deemed a direct equivalent.

4.2 Index

4.2.1 An Index shall be determined for all Products where an Index is used to calculate the Expiration Day Fix or Option Fix. An Index will normally be set on each Bank Day of the Index Delivery Period in respect of applicable Products, by reference to the value of the Contract Base on that day. The value of the Contract Base, and consequently the Index, shall be determined through the methodology described by the relevant Index Provider.

a. The Clearinghouse shall be entitled to act and otherwise rely upon any Index which purports to be the correct Index and which the Clearinghouse believe in good faith is correct.

b. In the event that the Index is amended following the Clearinghouse’s use of that Index for Settlement the Clearinghouse may perform a corrective Settlement based on the updated Index.

c. In the event that the Index is not determined and/or made available to the Clearinghouse at the relevant time, the Clearinghouse shall either (i) apply the latest relevant Index; or (ii) apply an alternative price set by the Clearinghouse or a relevant market operator which the Clearinghouse deems to be a satisfactory alternative to the Index.

d. The Clearinghouse may, in the event that it is unlikely that publication of the Index will be resumed, decide to effect Close-Out Transactions of Contracts that use the Index as a Contract Base, or Contract where a Future Contract is the Contract Base and such Future Contract use the Index as a Contract Base. The Close-Out Transactions will be registered with a Contract Price that is equal to the Daily Fix of the Bank Day previous to the Bank Day when the decision to effect Close-Out Transactions was made.

e. If the Clearinghouse determines that major changes has occurred or is to occur in the procedures for how the Index is calculated/set and in the Clearinghouse’s opinion significantly and unexpectedly changes the relevance of this Index, or that the relevant Index is no longer reliable as reference for the relevant Contract(s), the Clearinghouse may choose to invoke the procedures described in subsection (a) or (c) above.

f. Any Index which is to be determined by the Clearinghouse under this Section 4.2.3 shall be determined on a “best effort basis” and the results of such determinations shall be final and undisputable provided that the Clearinghouse has acted in good faith.

1.7.3 Account Holders who hold opposite positions in Contracts bought or sold by the Defaulter, may be subject to Forced Termination of Contracts for all or part of the positions at a Forced Termination Contract Price/Premium calculated by the Clearinghouse. The Clearinghouse shall in this event at random select Buyer(s) or Seller(s) in the relevant Contracts for termination of their Contracts, and organise and perform settlement. The Clearinghouse will select in increments of 5 lots until the Defaulter’s position is closed out. The selection is with replacement, so one Account Holder can be selected more than once.

The basis for the calculation will be:

a. Market prices of the Contract for the underlying Index Delivery Period as set by the Clearinghouse at the time of the Forced Termination, adjusted up or down by 50% of the Clearinghouse risk interval to the disadvantage of the Defaulter. In the event that the market price of multiple Contracts with the same underlying and the same Index Delivery Period shall be adjusted in the same direction, i.e. either up or down.

b. Implied volatility as used in calculation of Daily Fix for the Option Contract the preceding Bank Day, adjusted up or down by 30% to the disadvantage of the Defaulter. In the event that the implied volatility of multiple Option Contracts with the same underlying and the same Index Delivery Period is subject to adjustment, the implied volatility of all such adjusted Option Contracts shall be adjusted in the same direction, i.e. either up or down. The Clearinghouse risk interval is the price change interval.
